

COLORADO MARATHON CHARITY FUND ENTRY FORM

The Colorado Marathon is proud to contribute significantly to the Fort Collins and Colorado community. We have done so for nearly ten years. Beginning in 2010, we are taking advantage of the overwhelming demand for our events by creating ‘charity spots’.

After the half and full marathon cap, we are allocating an additional 25 spots in the half and full marathons as charity spots. What this means is that you can still secure a spot in the 2010 Colorado Half or Full Marathon by completing the Charity Fund Entry Form. The fee is $250 and ‘its first come first serve’.

The entire portion of your $250 fee will be placed in a ‘pool’ and will be donated to the following beneficiaries based on their proportionate contribution to the event:

- NCRF (Northern Colorado Running Foundation) – Primary Beneficiary
- Friends of the Poudre
- Lower Poudre Canyon Association
- AIR Foundation
- Arthritis Foundation
- Loveland Road Runners
- Larimer County Alternative Sentencing Unit
- Emerge Colorado
- St Joes Catholic School
- Fort Collins Running Club
- Loveland High School Cross Country Team
- Blue Sky Events (Blue Sky Marathon)
- American Diabetes Association
- Colorado State University Environmental Learning Center
- Thompson Valley Cross Country
- Northern Colorado HAM operators
- Harmony School

On behalf of the Colorado Marathon and our beneficiaries, we thank you for your entry!

NOTE: After the event, we will publish a donation list that will list the beneficiary and the dollar amount donated. This will be found on the home page at www.thecoloradomarathon.com.
